

NEW PASTORS APPOINTED FOR LOCAL CHURCHES

Rev. Peter Lauth of St. Joseph's Catholic Church to be Succeeded by Rev. Patrick Carroll.

HOLY CROSS ORDER ASSIGNS PRIESTS

Rev. Anthony Zubowicz Transferred to St. Hedwige's—Changes Made in the Faculty at Notre Dame.

The annual session of the provincial chapter of the Holy Cross order of Notre Dame came to a close Wednesday night with the assignment of obediences.

Father Patrick Carroll, professor of English literature at the university for many years, will replace Father Peter Lauth at St. Joseph's church. Father Lauth it is understood has retired. Father Carroll will be assisted by Father Charles Finner of Portland, Ore. Father Finner was assistant at St. Joseph's for a number of years.

The successor to Father Valentine Czyszewski, pastor of the St. Hedwige's church, who died last week, and awaited with some interest will be the Rev. Anthony Zubowicz of St. Casimir's. He will be assisted by Revs. Mieczyslaw Skalski and Martin Hanyz. Father Boniface Iwaszewski of Chicago will succeed Father Zubowicz at St. Casimir's. He will retain as his assistant, Father Leo Seybowicz.

Father Boleslaus Staszewski, who has been curate at St. Hedwige's, will go to Chicago to Holy Trinity church. Rev. Sylvester Hosinski just recently ordained, goes to Holy Trinity as curate.

Several Faculty Changes. Several changes in the Notre Dame faculty were also announced. Rev. John Ryan of St. Edward's college of Austin, Tex., has been transferred to Notre Dame and will become assistant professor of history. Rev. James Quinlan of Holy Cross college, Washington, D. C., comes as assistant professor of sociology. Rev. Dr. McGinn of Columbia university of Portland, Ore., has been transferred to Notre Dame as assistant professor of sociology.

Rev. Thomas Crumley will be returned from New Orleans. Rev. Father Francis Maher goes from Notre Dame to Columbia university at Portland, Ore., as does Rev. Walter O'Donnell. Rev. Paul Miller has been transferred to St. Edward's college at Austin, Tex.

Father Lauth has served as pastor of St. Joseph's church for the past 11 years being appointed to that pastorate April 5, 1902. Previous to his last appointment he served as pastor of St. Joseph from 1872 to 1876. Ordained in 1869. On March 7, 1869, he was ordained to the priesthood and for a time thereafter served as assistant priest to Father P. P. Cooney of St. Patrick's church. In 1877 he served as president of St. Joseph's college of Cincinnati. Then for three years he was engaged in missionary work with his former pastor, Father Cooney, and from 1887 to 1891 was pastor of St. Patrick's church. Going thence to California he spent one year among the Indians, from whence he journeyed to Austin, Tex., and after a pastorate in that city for 16 years went to New Orleans and served as pastor of the Sacred Heart church for one year. He then returned to Notre Dame where for a similar period he served as pastor of the Sacred Heart church there after which he again embraced missionary work with Father Klein.

Father Lauth was born in Luxembourg, Germany, May 24, 1834. In 1854 he came to United States. From 1859 to 1860 he was a student at St. Mary's college of Chicago. From 1861 to 1869 he attended Notre Dame university.

The reading of obediences and faculty changes Wednesday night marked the close of the annual provincial chapter meeting. Between 25 and 30 delegates were present from all parts of the country. Austin, Tex.; Portland, Ore.; New Orleans, Washington, D. C.; Chicago, Watertown, Wis., and Fort Wayne all sent delegates to the meeting.

Financial, disciplinary measures and faculty work were among other questions discussed.

LOCAL PEOPLE IN AN AUTO ACCIDENT

Machine-Driven by Joseph Werwinski Goes Into Excavation at Michigan City.

An automobile carrying Joseph Werwinski and a party of local people went into a sewer excavation at Michigan City Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Werwinski successfully drove his car over the first excavation by driving on the street car ties, but when he came to the second, the ties were missing and the front wheels of the car went down. The accident took place at the corner of Franklin and Eighth sts. He was driving at a slow rate and the car caught on the rails, none of the party being injured.

With Miss Mamie Majewska and Peter Beckiewicz of this city and Edward Kaczala and John Staszewski of South Chicago, Werwinski left the city Wednesday afternoon at about 3:30 o'clock for Laporte, where the two men from Chicago left the party.

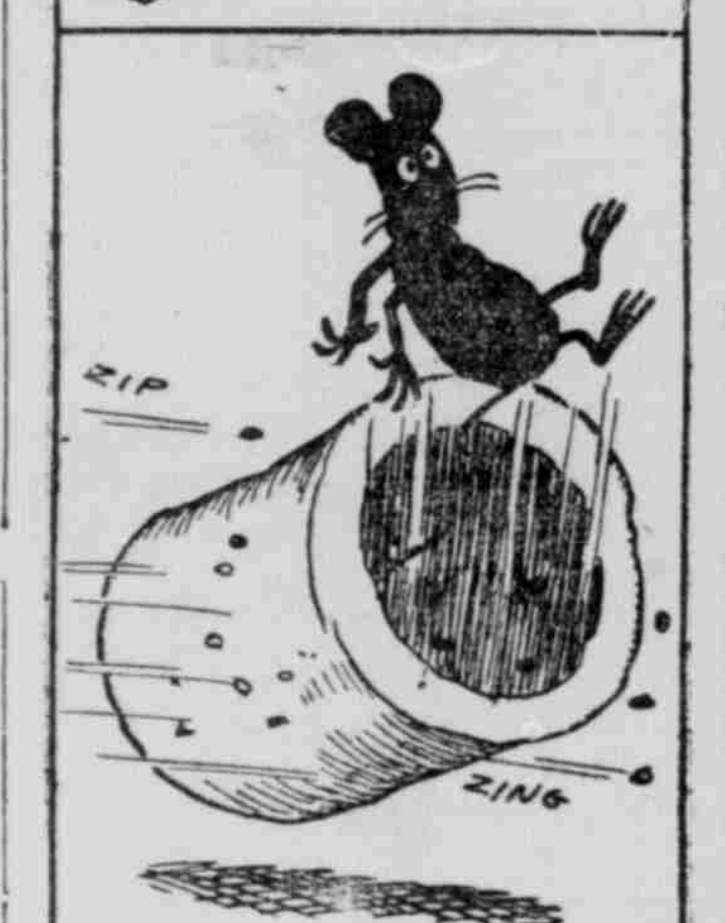

REARRIED IN THREE DAYS—SHOULD HAVE WAITED TWO YEARS

Charging that his wife disregarded an order of the circuit court forbidding her to re-marry within two years William Belford Mours has filed suit against Melvina Olive Mours to annul the marriage.

The couple were married in St. Joseph Feb. 8, 1912, three days after the woman had obtained her divorce here. The action was entitled Olive Rank against John Rank. As Rank did not appear and service was obtained by publication the order forbidding marriage within two years was entered.

Fay Fisher has filed suit against Lloyd Fisher for divorce charging failure to provide. They were married April 3, 1912. She asks permission to resume her maiden name, Fay Riddle.

BEGIN WAR ON LADS WHO BORROW AUTOS

Five Are Arrested at Indianapolis and They May Have to Serve Jail Sentences.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 10.—War against automobile thieves and "joy riders" who "borrow" machines for that purpose culminated here Wednesday in the arrest of five youths. They are charged with having violated the automobile law passed by the last general assembly and the act makes it mandatory upon the court to sentence offenders to at least ten days in the work house and a fine of $25 or more.

The boys arrested are members of good families here and many affecting scenes were enacted at police station where relatives hurried to furnish bond for the prisoners. Those arrested are: Simon Bullington, 19; Russell Moorely, Kenneth Griffin, 19; Walter Shellhouse, 19, and Harold O'Brien, 17. Frank Stark, 16, was arrested last night.

The police assert that more than 15 youths have been implicated in the wholesale thefts of automobiles here.

FACTORIES TO SEND GIRLS ON VACATIONS

In order to raise the necessary funds to send a representative to the Y. W. C. A. camp at Lake Geneva the girls of the Longfellow Shirt factory were given an auto ride about the city for an hour Wednesday afternoon.

The machines were furnished by the business men of the city and
